

Lionfish Study Dive Trip

Learn! Dive! Contribute!

This is more than a dive trip! It is an excursion to learn more about this invasive species that is overtaking the Caribbean. Get hands-on conservation experiences collecting lionfish and spending afternoons doing scientific survey work with a Lionfish expert! You'll also get the opportunity to turn your catch into a scrumptious meal with the August Moon Café!

This trip includes:

- 4 nights lodging at the Orange Hill Beach Inn (double occupancy)
- 3 days of two tank boat dives with Stuart Cove's
- Rentals of tanks & weights
- Use of Lionfish Collection Materials

Where -- Nassau, Bahamas

When -- June 2-6, 2010

How Much -- Trip cost $799*

*The trip cost does not include: Meals, Transportation, Airport Transfers, Departure Tax, Personal Dive Equipment, Trip Cancellation and Dive Insurance.

For more trip information and registration go to www.atlanticedge.com

Your trip leader for this adventure will be Leah Neal.

Leah is a marine biologist who has been studying lionfish for years . She has traveled numerous times to the Bahamas and around the world studying the marine environment and invasive species.

Leah was a leader for our 2009 Lionfish trip and she can't wait to take you this year!